What we do

The Stay Safe Initiative run live, interactive, engaging workshops, assemblies and presentations, for young people of all ages including parents and carers.

On Location live and direct

Live on location workshops, assemblies and presentations run within a school or youth group setting.

Virtual Learning live and interactive

Live and fully interactive sessions delivered remotely to a virtual audience, either into the classroom or the home.

Not just ticking boxes

The Stay Safe Initiative are here to do so much more than just tick boxes.

It's essential to us that our audience have the opportunity to gain as much valuable help and advice as possible.

That's why our sessions are always LIVE and FULLY INTERACTIVE.

This allows all attendees to ask as many questions and be fully involved throughout regardless of how we are reaching them.

Internet Safety

Yr 7-8 Live & Interactive Presentation

For many young people, starting secondary school is usually the time when their digital lives really start to grow.

This important session will help the newer members of school to safely navigate themselves through their ever rapidly growing digital lives.

Whether it's through games, social media, using mobile phones or just simply browsing the internet.

These 90min presentations can be delivered either

Building Relationships

We are always looking to go that extra mile for our audience.

We're always keen to build strong, long lasting relationships with every school or group we work with.

This not only allows us to cater for their individual needs as time moves forward, but more importantly we are able to make ourselves available to provide free follow up support if needed.

That could be helping a pupil that forgot to ask a pressing question during a session, or helping a parent seeking additional advice..... we're always going to try our hardest to help.*
