Real friends Vs Online friends

Unfortunately it has become extremely normal for children to play, connect and chat with people online they don't know in their offline (real) life.

In many cases, they don't see or refer to these people as strangers.

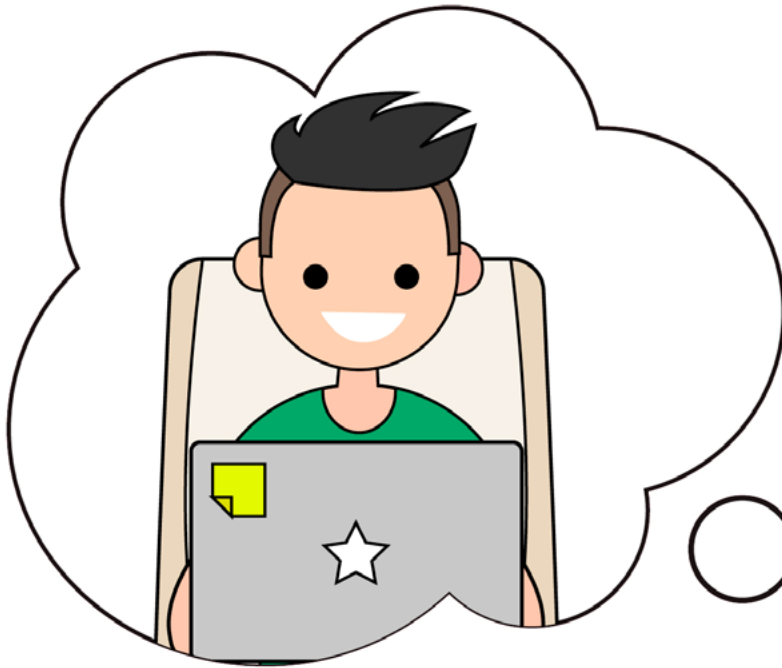

Use this as an opportunity to help them think about the differences between real and online friendships.

Use the 1st page below to have a class discussion about friends off and online.

The follow on tasks will allow them to share their individual thoughts and ideas.

Please don't forget to take pics and share them online and with us!
